Divine Mercy Sunday

Source Wikipedia

Divine Mercy Sunday (also known as the Feast of the Divine Mercy) is celebrated on the Second Sunday of Easter, which concludes the Octave of Easter. The feast day is observed by Roman Catholics as well as some Anglicans.^[1] It is originally based on the Catholic devotion to the Divine Mercy that Faustina Kowalska reported as part of her encounter with Jesus, and is associated with special promises from Jesus and indulgences issued by the Catholic Church.

The feast of Divine Mercy, according to the diary of Kowalska, receives from Jesus the biggest promises of grace related to the Devotion of Divine Mercy, in particular that a person who goes to sacramental confession (the confession may take place some days before) and receives holy communion on that day, shall obtain the total expiation of all sins and punishment. That means each person would go immediately after death to heaven without suffering in purgatory. Additionally, the Roman Catholic Church grants a plenary indulgence (observing the usual rules) with the recitation of some simple prayers...consult Wikipedia

St. Joseph is calling...Join Us for a 33 Day Consecration

In this year of St. Joseph we invite you to Consecrate yourself to this great Saint who is Patron of the Universal Church and the head of the Holy Family. There is a 33 day programme in preparation for the Consecration. We hope that many of our parishioners will participate. Please contact the parish office with your pledge to join.
