

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

Church services have been suspended in many places across the world. Social life has changed dramatically and countless people have been quarantined or are self-isolating. At times like this, there is a great longing for community. New Pilgrim Path has introduced a new page of links to religious services available live on the internet. By visiting these links, one can be part of an online worship community.

ALONE

COVID-19 Helpline

ALONE has launched a national support line for older people who have concerns or difficulties relating to the outbreak of COVID-19 (Coronavirus) in Ireland. Professional staff will answer queries and give advice and reassurance where necessary. The line is open Monday to Friday, 8am-8pm. Call 0818 222 024.

Fourth Week of Lent, Year A, 22nd March, 2020. Bulletin No: 1311.

Lockdown

Yes there is fear. Yes there is isolation. Yes there is panic buying.
Yes there is sickness. Yes there is even death.

But, they say that in Wuhan after so many years of noise you can hear the birds again. They say that after just a few weeks of quiet the sky is no longer thick with fumes but blue and grey and clear.

They say that in the streets of Assisi people are singing to each other across the empty squares, keeping their windows open so that those who are alone may hear the sounds of family around them.

They say that a hotel in the West of Ireland is offering free meals and delivery to the housebound.

Today a young woman I know is busy spreading fliers with her number through the neighbourhood so that the elders may have someone to call on.

Today Churches, Synagogues, Mosques and Temples are preparing to welcome and shelter the homeless, the sick, the weary

All over the world people are slowing down and reflecting

All over the world people are looking at their neighbours in a new way

All over the world people are waking up to a new reality

To how big we really are. To how little control we really have. To what really matters.

To Love.

So we pray and we remember that yes there is fear. But there does not have to be hate.

Yes there is isolation. But there does not have to be loneliness.

Yes there is panic buying. But there does not have to be meanness.

Yes there is sickness. But there does not have to be disease of the soul

Yes there is even death. But there can always be a rebirth of love.

Wake to the choices you make as to how to live now.

Today, breathe. Listen, behind the factory noises of your panic the birds are singing again. The sky is clearing, Spring is coming,

And we are always encompassed by Love.

Open the windows of your soul

And though you may not be able to touch across the empty square, Sing.
