

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

Amid the joys of Easter, many still struggle with the idea that Jesus had to die for our sins as a sacrifice to appease a wrathful God. Franciscan theology offers an alternative, non-violent, atonement theory which has never been deemed heretical. It is synthesised by Richard Rohr: "This theory says that Jesus did not come to change the mind of God about humanity, He came to change the mind of humanity about God." Listen to a fascinating interview on this topic with Pat Coyle, Director of Irish Jesuit Communications, at: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

A time to be thankful.

During this Easter Season take a moment to think of something you are thankful for. You will find our white Easter tree beside St. Anthony's Shrine. Write your thought on one of the cards provided and hang it on the tree with a yellow ribbon. Giving Thanks!

PRAYER FOR THE SICK

Please remember in your prayers the sick of the parish.

The list is displayed beside St. Anne's Shrine. If you would like us to pray for someone you know who is ill please contact the parish office with their name.

The Message of the Merciful Jesus

St Faustina wrote down day after day what Jesus said to her. This is a selection of just a few of those messages:

"My daughter urge souls to trust in my Mercy. This will be your mission on earth, and in Heaven."

"Be merciful as I am merciful. Love your neighbours for love of me, even your most hated enemies, so that my mercy may be reflected in your heart. Give me souls. I am three times holy, and I detest the smallest sin, but when sinners repent, I pursue them with my mercy along their journey, and when they turn to me I forget the bitterness they have caused my heart and I rejoice at their return. Tell them that I am always waiting for them".

"if they have great faith, there are no limits to my generosity. I rejoice when they seek a lot from me, because I have a lot to give, a great lot. I am sad on the other hand if they ask for little because then they only restrict their own hearts. Tell them my daughter that I am all love and mercy. Whosoever approaches me with trust, will receive such a superabundance of my graces that he will not be able to refrain from sharing them with others."

The greatest joy that Jesus receives is from sinners who throw themselves with faith on His mercy. "those souls who invoke my mercy give me great delight: to them I grant graces far beyond their expectations."

Jesus, the Divine Mercy, I consecrate my entire life, from this day on, to You without reserve.

Into Your hands I abandon my past, my present, and my future, from this day forward, make me a true follower of your teaching.

Let Your Divine Mercy Image protect my home and my family from all the powers of evil in this world today.

May all who venerate it never perish, May it be their joy in life, their hope in death, And their glory in eternity. Amen.

Next Weekend's Readings

First Reading: Acts 3:13-15, 17-19.

Psalm: 4.

Second Reading: Jn 2:1-5.

Gospel: Lk 24:35-48.

For the duration of Eastertide the Regina Caeli is recited instead of the Angelus. Copies are available in the Church for you to take home.

Please don't forget to return your Trócaire Boxes to the Parish Office or send directly to Trócaire via their website. Thank you.

We thank you for your continued support of both the First and Second Collections during these Covid times. Your generosity is most appreciated.

St Joseph Calling !!

In this year of St. Joseph we invite you to Consecrate yourself to this great Saint who is Patron of the Universal Church and the head of the Holy Family. There is a 33 day programme in preparation for the Consecration. We hope that many of our parishioners will participate. Please contact the parish office with your pledge to join.
