

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

Christian churches worldwide are celebrating the Season of Creation from 1st September to 4th October. The purpose is to discern the ways in which God has been present to you, the times when the Holy Spirit was drawing you towards life. A special 'Ecological Examen' has been developed as a tool for reflection and action to help deepen our call to care for creation and the most vulnerable. This inspiring self-guided resource can be accessed at: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

THE FEAST OF THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

September 14th

Early in the fourth century, St Helena, mother of the Roman Emperor Constantine, went to Jerusalem in search of the holy places of Christ's life. She razed the second-century temple of Aphrodite, which tradition held was built over the Saviour's tomb, and her son built the Basilica of the Holy Sepulchre over it. During the excavation, workers found three crosses. Legend has it that the one on which Jesus died was identified when it's touch healed a dying woman.

The cross immediately became an object of veneration. At a Good Friday celebration in Jerusalem toward the end of the fourth century, according to an eye witness, the wood was taken out of it's silver container and placed on a table together with the inscription Pilate ordered placed above Jesus' head. Then "all the people pass through one by one; all of them bow down, touching the cross and the inscription, first with their foreheads, then with their eyes; and, after kissing the cross, they move on."

The Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross first entered the Western calendar in the seventh century after Emperor Heraclius recovered the cross from the Persians, who had carried it off in 614. According to the story, the emperor intended to carry the cross back into Jerusalem himself, but was unable to move forward until he took off his imperial garb and became a barefoot pilgrim.

FEASTDAYS this week:

Mon 13th: St John Chrysostom, bishop

Tues 14th The Exaltation of the Holy Cross

The Cross today is the universal image of Christian belief. Countless generations of artists have turned it into a thing of beauty to be carried in procession or worn as jewellery. To the eyes of the first Christians, it had no beauty. It stood outside too many city walls, decorated only with decaying corpses, as a threat to anyone who defied Roman authority - including Christians who refused sacrifice to Roman gods. Although believers spoke of the cross as the instrument of salvation, it seldom appeared in Christian art unless disguised as an anchor or the chi-rho until after Constantine's Edict of Toleration (313).

Wed 15th: Our Lady of Sorrows

Thurs 16th: Ss Cornelius, pope & Cyprian, bishop
