

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

When St Francis composed the extraordinary Canticle of the Creatures he was blind. Yet, he was able to see more clearly than ever with the inner eye of his mind. With unparalleled clarity he perceived the basic unity of all creation and his own place as a friar in the midst of God's creatures. His unqualified love of all creatures, great and small, had grown into unity in his own heart. He was a centre of communion with all creation. Celebrate this 3rd week of the Season of Creation by praying the words of Francis in an inspiring reading of the Canticle by a 21st century Italian Franciscan. Visit: www.newpilgrimpath.ie.

PIO OF PIETRELCINA

September 23rd

According to one estimate, over 325 people since the time of Francis of Assisi have received the stigmata, that is, all or some of the wounds of Christ's passion. Few of those stigmatics have had a more difficult life than Padre Pio.

Francesco Forgione joined the Capuchin Franciscans at age fifteen, taking the name Pio. Ordained in 1910, he served for a short time in the Italian army during World War I. In 1917 he was assigned to the friary in San Giovanni Rotondo, seventy five miles from Bari on Italy's Adriatic Coast. A year later, while making his thanksgiving after Mass, he had a vision of Jesus, and when it was over Padre Pio had the stigmata on his hands, feet and side. After undergoing various medical and Church investigations, for a short time he was not permitted to celebrate Mass publicly or hear confessions. Although he wrote nothing after 1924, unscrupulous people sometimes presented him as the author of prophecies they wrote.

In time, busloads of men and women came to his 5.00am Mass and to his confessional, which he occupied up to ten hours a day. During his mid-morning break, he blessed the sick.

Faith must lead to action, to works of compassion. In 1946, ground was broken on nearby Mount Gargano for the 'House for the Alleviation of Suffering', a 350-bed facility financed by Padre Pio's benefactors.
