

New Pilgrim Path Website of the Week

The Gospel reading for this great feast is a passage from John: Chapter 18. This wonderful passage goes to the heart of John's Christology. Distinguished Bible scholar and Augustinian friar, Kieran O'Mahony, locates Sunday's reading in the overall context of how salvation is presented in the Gospel of John. Watch this insightful 20-minute video at www.newpilgrimpath.ie. As this week is the last of the Church year, New Pilgrim Path also introduces some superb online Advent retreats from Catholic and Anglican traditions. These will be added to between now and the 1st Sunday in Advent. Find out more on our Advent Retreats 2021 page.

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, Year B, 21st November, 2021. Bulletin No: 1388.

Of all the titles we could bestow on Jesus that of 'king' would seem to be one of the most inappropriate. It smacks of the kind of things He rejected. And yet the title 'king' is appropriate, it stands for something true and real in Jesus. First of all, it stands for His divinity. God is the Lord of all, the King of the universe, the One to whom all owe allegiance, the Ruler and Judge of all. He was the greatest source of goodness, light and hope in a dark world. Jesus had immense moral and spiritual authority by reason of the kind of person He was. His presence could change beyond recognition the lives of those around Him.

Jesus did speak of kingdom - the Kingdom of Heaven. His Kingdom represents all those things which the world doesn't stand for but which deep down it longs for - all that is right and true, all that is beautiful, just and good. His Kingdom will have come when God's Will for us and for creation will be done.

Even though Christ the King doesn't need or want soldiers and tanks, he does need warriors - people who are ready to 'fight' for justice, truth, and peace. There is a battle being waged between the kingdom of darkness and the kingdom of light, the kingdom of lies and the kingdom of truth, the kingdom of evil and the kingdom of good. On which side are you?
